RATHER DE BRUYCKER RESIGNS.

Gives Up Flourishing Parish to Go to His Dying Mother in Belgium.

Rev. Arthur De Bruycker, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church of this city, this afternoon sent in his resignation to Bishop J. J. Nihan of the Hartford diocese, to take effect as soon as possible. This action on Father De Bruycker's part was taken upon receipt of news that his mother, who lives in Brussels, Belgium, is failing in health. He expects to leave here in a few weeks and will remain with his mother until her death.

Father De Bruycker came to Willimantic about 25 years ago to live with his uncle, Rev. Florimond De Bruycker, for many years pastor of St. Joseph's church. He was educated in this city at the local schools and studied for the priesthood here. In Montreal and Ottawa, leaving Ottawa, he attended the American college of Louvain, in Belgium, for seven years. In 1896 he returned to Willimantic and received the appointment as assistant to his uncle. Here he remained until the death of his uncle in 1903, when he was appointed pastor of the new parish, St. Mary's. During his pastorate here he has been instrumental in building up the church until now the valuation placed upon its property is $150,000. He has been supervisor of the parochial school, in which are enrolled 725 pupils.

Street Fight Leads to Arrests.

There will be one interesting case in police court this (Saturday) morning, the seriousness of which will have to be determined at that time, when one of the principals will be arraigned on the charge of assault and breach of the peace.

Friday afternoon, in the vicinity of the surprise store on Jackson street, Sam Seigel, aged 25, and Hyman Chasen, a 20-year-old butcher, had some words and in a hand to hand encounter in which Seigel is said to have been the aggressor, a free for all fight ensued.

A large crowd of men, women and children, witnessed the go, in which Chasen came out second best. He was bleeding about the forehead and

Not So Dead as Reported.

Joseph Stone, who was seriously ill at a hospital in Providence, R. I., a short time ago, has returned to the city and has sufficiently recovered to be able to go about the street. He is reported dead less than a fortnight ago.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

House on Bonny View Farm Damaged and Set Afire—Tenant Injured.

The Dickson place, known as Bonny View, situated on the farm owned by the Card road, in the town of Lebanon, was struck by lightning about 8:30 p. m. on Friday night. The lightning struck the house and set it on fire. The fire spread rapidly and the house was completely destroyed. The tenant, a man named John Smith, was injured and is now in the hospital.

Starts on Motoring Trip.

George O. Strong left in his automobile for Providence Friday evening on route for Portland, Me., where he will meet Mrs. Strong, and from there motor through the White mountains to Lake Umbagog, stopping at various points, and return by way of the Berkshires. He expects to be gone about ten days.

Caught Stealing Eggs.

Paul Welch, aged about 16, one of a number of boys alleged to have been making a practice of stealing eggs from the A. C. Andrews store on Main street, was caught in the act Friday afternoon by a man in Mr. Andrews' employ. The youngster was taken to Mr. Andrews' store and given a severe reprimand and then allowed to go home. Names of several of the other boys said to have been implicated in the egg stealing were given to the police.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Clinton C. Helms.

Mrs. Helms, aged 31, wife of Clinton C. Helms, died at 6 o'clock Friday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, where she underwent an operation on Thursday morning. The operation is a very delicate one and at first it was thought it would result favorably. Mrs. Helms was born in Leominster, Mass., Dec. 5, 1878, and made her home there until she was 18, when she married Mr. Helms, and has since resided in this city, where she was highly esteemed for her noble traits of character.

There survive, besides her husband, a sister, Mrs. Mary Helms, of Leominster, Mass., and two half sisters, Mrs. Charles Corey and Mrs. Bessie Hare of Leominster, Mass.

Local Notes.

Mrs. Emma Miller of New London has been the guest of Mrs. J. E. Robbins of Main street for several days.

Mrs. Robbins will return to New London on Monday morning for a brief stay.

Joe Harris, Dunn's premier slab artist, remained at home Friday and worked out a little on Windham field.

He is authorized by contractors to put on this morning's game with the Whalers on that field. He will endeavor to make the measure as accurate and will receive liberal encouragement from the fans, who sort of cotton to his style.

Personal.

Dr. F. E. Wood has heard W. H. Robbins of Woodmont to succeed James Jones as chauffeur, who has resigned.

Chief Wade U. Webster and Mrs. Webster and son leave today for a stay of several days at Savin Rock, New Haven.

Mrs. Thomas H. Cole of Windham street left Thursday for a visit with her son, Dr. Chester W. Cole, at his home in Oyster Bay, L. I.

Mrs. H. E. Ford and her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Colman, with the latter son, left Friday to pass the remainder of the summer at Hyannis, Mass.

Station Agent Arthur L. Griswold has hired a bungalow at Lake Waukegan, Ill., where he and his family will go there with his family today for a stay of a week or two.

Mrs. James M. Reid and daughter, Miss Alice, have returned to their home on Windham road after three weeks' stay in the summer home of George Thomas Barr, at his home in Canaan, N. H.

Bids for the construction of one of the two battleships and the two colliers authorized by congress will be advertised for by the navy department on October 1, next, according to announcement made yesterday by the acting secretary of the navy, Mr. Winthrop.

PUTNAM

Canadian Tourists to Return Sunday—Night-Grangers' Picnic a Success—Four Cows Killed by Lightning—Park Improvements.

The party made up of Danielson and Putnam people touring Canada, under the direction of Mr. Dwyer of Putnam and E. A. Sullivan of Danielson, is expected to return Sunday night.

Reports from the party are to the effect that the members are having a most delightful time.

GRANGERS' OUTING

Proved Delightful in Spite of the Showers.

Grangers are still talking of the delightful picnic and outing at Bates' grove, Webster lake, Thursday. Of the three hundred present there is not one who has anything but praise of the outing, especially the dinner which was held at 12:30. Showers occurred during the day, but the grangers did not permit the rain to spoil the enjoyment, and the entire program of speaking, readings and music was carried out. About 25 members from Putnam grange and a like number from Wolf Den grange of Pomfret attended as guests of Quinn's grange, under whose direction the picnic was held. Miss Mary Ross of Putnam gave several violin selections in a charming manner, and a quartette from the Congregational church of this city, Miss Gladys Murfey and Gladys R. Williams, Harold S. Corbin and John A. Morse, Jr., gave a number of fine selections. The quartette was under the direction of Organist L. O. Williams.

Lightning Kills Four Cows.

During the heavy thunder shower which visited this section Friday evening four cows belonging to John Kelley, a farmer living north of North Woodstock village, were killed by lightning. The cows were in a pasture on Mr. Kelley's farm.

Appointed Substitute Carrier.

George C. Williams of South Woodstock has received the appointment as substitute carrier on rural route No. 2 from the Putnam office. Herbert Johnson is regular carrier.

Applications to Be Made.

Registrars of Voters Leon T. Wilson and Thomas P. Ryan were in session in the selectmen's office Friday to receive applications to be made voters. The number of applications received, while not large, is fairly up to the average.

City Notes.

Dewitt C. Park of Brooklyn, candidate for the nomination for sheriff of this county, was a visitor in Putnam Friday.

Thomas Lamond of Hartford is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamond.

Frank M. Bennett of New York is spending a vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bennett of Chapel street.

The A. F. & O. of the Methodist church held a foot sale in the store of Baldwin & Clarke Friday afternoon, with good patronage.

Judge Green to Hold Court.

A court calendar session of superior court is to be held in the court room in this city on Friday, September 2. The September term begins the following Tuesday, September 6, with Hon. Gardiner Greene, of Norwich on the bench. There are a number of serious criminal cases which will probably come before this term of court.

At the Park.

Pleasure seekers at Wildwood park were disappointed Friday night because of the shower which came up during the evening performance. The fireworks were given just before the show, instead of after the show, as is usual.

The stumps of the trees injured by fire at the park nearly a year ago are being pulled up this week, and when this work is completed the ground will be seeded for a beautiful lawn, with two drives leading from the highway to the pavilion and grove.

At St. Philip's Church.

Today (Saturday) being the festival of the Transfiguration of our Lord, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 a. m.
